Capabilities Narrative:

SurClean Inc. is a WOSB custom laser coating removal company that specializes in precise, safe, and clean surface preparation. Founded to move our military forward in battling corrosion, SurClean uses years of laser industry expertise to solve coating removal challenges, in industrials and the military. Here we focus on laser beam delivery systems including design ability, optics, and automation, and our team of experienced engineers design solutions to better suit our client's varied requests. At SurClean, we pair our own beam delivery system with off the shelf laser sources, chillers and exhausts to build handhels and robotic units for assorted application use. When looking to remove or de-coat paint and mold, de-oil, surface structuring, corrosion cleaning or restoration of stone, brick, and concrete we have the unique tools needed to tackle most projects. We are your laser removal company dedicated to keeping our environment clean, for more info visit www.surclean.com.
