Capabilities Narrative:

Van Allen was founded in January of 2014 on the idea that that most established companies have the knowledge, people, and experience to face down their biggest challenges and realize their next successes. We realized that our value as consultants would be in bringing outside perspectives and experience to capitalize on their talent and industry savvy. Today, we are a management and technology consulting firm focused on providing personalized solutions for mid- to large-sized organizations within government, non-profit, and private sectors. Our clients range from innovative tech startups to Fortune 500 household names.
